BDO Dunwoody LLP and MDKS Announce Merger

Kitchener, ON – Wednesday, June 24, 2008: BDO Dunwoody LLP is pleased to announce their merger with MDKS, a Waterloo-area accounting firm, effective July 1, 2009. The combined practice will operate under the BDO Dunwoody LLP name.

McMane Dunkel Kingston and Stranz LLP and MDKS Solutions Inc. make up the firm. Their clients vary from owner-managed entrepreneurial businesses to significant community-oriented non-profit organizations. The office consists of four partners, Wayne Dunkel, Rick Kingston, Michael Stranz and Lloyd Wright and a staff of 29 personnel.

This merger will double the size of BDO's presence in Waterloo Region with a total of 90 professionals including 10 Partners, 2 Associates, 23 senior managers and managers and 55 staff operating out of offices in Waterloo, Kitchener and Cambridge.

"MDKS takes pride in their high level of client service", says Jim Harper, Waterloo Region Managing Partner. "They have a highly complementary style with us at BDO, and we'll have a significant increase in our tax practice, IT Solutions practice and health care practices.

Wayne Dunkel of MDKS agrees. "We believe there are a number of benefits resulting from the synergy of merging our firms. We will have access to an expanded talent pool that is committed to the Waterloo Region as we are, as well as access to a world-wide network."

The new BDO Waterloo Region team will offer a wide variety of Accounting and Advisory services including Assurance, Taxation, IT Solutions and Risk and Financial Advisory services to a multitude of area-based clients.
